

Homeless Does Not Mean Voteless.

Being unhoused does not mean you lose your right to vote. You can register and participate in elections even if you don't have a permanent home address.

Tracy CCC is partnering with SJC to provide voter education to anyone without a permanent address.

READY TO REGISTER?

CHECK YOUR COUNTY'S REQUIREMENTS

Find out what you need to register and vote.

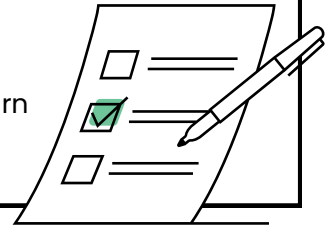

PROVIDE AN ADDRESS

You can use a description of where you live or sleep as your home address. Your mailing address can be a shelter, P.O. box, General Delivery, or another appropriate address.

MAKE A PLAN TO VOTE

Check your registration, find your voting location, and learn when and how you can vote.

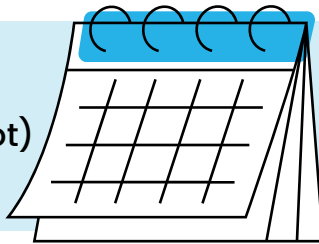

NOT SURE WHERE TO START?

We're here to help with voter registration questions and provide you with the resources and services you need to make the most of your vote! Join us at our voter education event this October!
